

Unmanned aircraft, Weather accident study, and the state of aviation in ND.

Unmanned aircraft in the skies over ND? You bet! Trevor Woods from UND will be discussing the new tests sites and unmanned operations in general.

Weather related Accident Study: Patrick Ayd from the National Weather Service will discuss a local area accident and how weather was a factor.

They want to do what where?: Kyle Wanner, Interim Director of the NDAC will discuss ND Airports and Airspace as they affect General and Commercial Aviation.

Directions: Drive toward Bismarck Municipal Airport on University Drive, continue past airport terminal entrance. Turn next left on Jetway Ave. then continue Corporate Circle thence turn right. Go past the MDU hangar until end of street and turn right into Basin Electric Hangar's parking lot (east side of grey hangar). Entrance next to security fence.
